6.1 Introduction and Background

Section 69 of the Act requires all Councils to adopt and maintain an Election Period Policy, to be included in its Governance Rules, to explain to their communities how they will conduct their business during an Election Period. This policy is designed to ensure Council Elections are not compromised by inappropriate electioneering by existing Councillors, actions and decisions which could be perceived as influencing voters are avoided and the authority of the incoming Council is safeguarded.

6.2 Purpose and Objectives

- a) This policy provides a framework for Councillors and Officers and outlines expected behaviours for the conduct of Council business during the lead-up to a General Election. The policy is designed to ensure that; the election is conducted in a transparent and accountable manner, the highest standard of governance is achieved, and the statutory requirements of the Act are met. The policy will achieve greater consistency and rigour in Council procedures and reduce ambiguity and confusion surrounding caretaker arrangements in the forty days leading up to the conduct of a General Election.
- b) This policy applies to individual Councillors, the Council as a Body Corporate, Delegated Committees, the Chief Executive Officer, all other Officers and any person acting on behalf of Council under delegation.
- c) Council is committed to:
 - i. avoiding during an Election Period the making of significant new policies or major decisions that could unreasonably bind a future Council;
 - ii. ensuring that public resources, including staff resources, are not used in election campaigning or in a way that may improperly influence the result of an election, or improperly advantage existing Councillors as candidates in the election;
 - iii. ensuring that the ordinary business of Council continues throughout an Election Period in a responsible and transparent manner and in accordance with statutory requirements and established caretaker conventions;
 - iv. ensuring that the ongoing ordinary business of Council is kept separate from Councillors' activities which relate to the election; and

- v. ensuring that, in the lead-up to an election, Council does not make decisions which inappropriately bind the next Council.

6.3 Prohibited Decisions

- a) Section 69(2) of the Act prohibits the making of the following categories of decision during the Election Period for a General Election (the period starting at the time nominations close on nomination day and ending at 6:00pm on election day):
 - i. those relating to the appointment or remuneration of a Chief Executive Officer, other than a decision to appoint or remunerate an Acting Chief Executive Officer;
 - ii. those committing Council to expenditure exceeding one per cent of Council's income from general rates, municipal charges and service rates and charges in the preceding financial year;
 - iii. those which Council considers could be reasonably deferred until the next Council is in place; and
 - iv. those which Council considers should not be made during an Election Period.
- b) Council must prohibit any Council decision during the election period for a General Election or a by-election that would enable the use of Council's resources in a way that is intended to influence, or is likely to influence, voting at the election.
- c) A Council decision of a kind described in clauses 6.3(a)(i) or (ii) above made during the Election Period is invalid.
- d) Any person who suffers any loss or damage as a result of acting in good faith on a Council decision that is invalid by virtue of clause 6.3(c) is entitled to compensation from the Council for that loss or damage.
- e) If Council considers that the Municipality or the local community would be significantly disadvantaged by delaying a prohibited decision, Council will, by resolution, request a compliance exemption under Section 177 of the Act from the Minister for Local Government.

6.4 Use of Council Provided Resources to Councillors

- a) Councillors must not use any Council resource for campaign purposes during the Election Period or seek reimbursement from Council for costs incurred for a campaign-related purpose.
- b) Incidental use of Council-provided resources (such as a vehicle in the case of the Mayor, mobile phone or other device) in connection with any campaign-related purpose and as part of the ordinary course of that Councillor's daily and typical use of such a resource will be acceptable. Council considers that the provision of such resources and their continued use during the Election Period, including their incidental use in respect of any campaign purpose, does not confer any particular, unreasonable or unfair electoral advantage on a Councillor-candidate as compared to other candidates.
- c) In reaching this position, Council notes the position expressed in its Expense Policy that it is reasonable for Councillors to use these resources for both Council- and incidental non-Council-related purposes, and that any out of pocket costs arising from such use for non-Council-related purposes should not be claimed as reimbursement from Council.
- d) Council has also considered that the use of mobile phones, computers and cars is almost universal in the wider community today and that there is no unique or special advantage conferred on a Councillor-candidate by merely continuing to have access to one or more of these resources during the Election Period.
- e) Council considers that it would be impractical for a Councillor to have to operate two mobile phones or two of any of the other resources merely to avoid use of any one of those Council-provided resources in connection with a campaign purpose.
- f) Council further notes that there is minimal or no cost or other impact for Council if a Councillor uses one of these resources for non-Council purposes. Moreover, Council's Expense Policy expressly contemplates this sort of arrangement in relation to mobile phone use and deals with the process for attributing the out-of-pocket costs of the phone calls between Council-related calls and non-Council-related calls. However, during the Election Period, Councillors should be especially mindful not to seek reimbursement for any out-of-pocket costs which arise from a campaign-related purpose.

- g) Accordingly, Council has formed the view that it is impractical and unnecessary for current Councillors who are seeking re-election to be required to purchase their own devices merely for use during the election period. In fact, it is considered that it would be an unreasonable and unnecessary imposition on Councillor-candidates, who for the past up-to four years of their term have had these resources provided by Council, and who if re-elected, would have the reasonable expectation that these resources will continue to be provided to them, if they were forced to have to purchase such resources personally for the purposes of only a minimal period for use during the Election Period.
- h) Council further notes that this approach is consistent with the approach adopted in the Victorian Parliament and the Australian Parliament for members of those places.
- i) Councillors will continue to automatically access Council-held documents during the election period, but only as necessary for them to perform their current roles and functions.

6.5 Prohibition on Councillors or Member of Council Staff

- a) Council commits to the principle that it will ensure that Council resources are not used inappropriately during a Council election.
- b) The Chief Executive Officer will ensure that Council complies with Section 304 of the Act, which requires that a Council does not print, publish or distribute or cause, permit or authorise to be printed, published or distributed an electoral advertisement, handbill, media release, newsletter, pamphlet, leaflet, mail-out or notice during the election period unless it only contains information about the election process.
- c) The Chief Executive Officer will review all publications prior to the commencement and during the Election Period to ensure that any such publications comply with the requirements of Section 304 of the Act.
- d) The Chief Executive Officer will be familiar with the requirements of the Act, and any other requirements, with respect to the printing, publishing and/or distribution of electoral publications.
- e) In accordance with the Act:
 - i. a Councillor or Officer must not use Council resources in a way that is intended, or is likely, to affect the result of an election under the Act; and
 - ii. a Councillor or Officer must not use Council resources to intentionally or recklessly print, publish or distribute or cause, permit or authorise to be printed, published or distributed an electoral advertisement, handbill, pamphlet, notice or any other electoral material during the election period on behalf of, or purporting to be on behalf of the Council unless the electoral material only contains information about the election process or is otherwise required in accordance with, or under, any Act or regulation.
- f) The requirements above do not apply to the publication of any document published prior to the commencement of the Election Period and to the publication of any document required to be published in accordance with, or under, any Act or regulation.
- g) Official Council media statements will only be made by the Chief Executive Officer during the Election Period, including radio and television interviews. As much as possible throughout the Election Period, Council publicity and communications will be restricted to promoting normal Council activities and services and informing residents and ratepayers about the election process.

6.6 Public Consultation

- a) Consultation forms an integral part of policy development and operations, however consultation undertaken close to a General Election may become an election issue in itself and influence voting. Issues raised during the consultation and decisions that follow may also unreasonably bind the incoming Council.
- b) If the Chief Executive Officer determines that consultation must be undertaken during the Election Period, the Chief Executive Officer (on behalf of Council) must record the special circumstances making it necessary and how risks over influencing the election will be mitigated or prevented.
- c) In any event, public consultation will only be undertaken during an Election Period if the consultation is mandated by legislation.
- d) Where consultation is discretionary, the consultation can occur during an Election Period only after the Chief Executive Officer determines whether or not the consultation will, or is likely to, influence the outcome of the election. If the matter subject to the consultation is likely to be closely associated in the minds of the voters with a particular candidate or a group of candidates, then the Chief Executive Officer will seek to delay the consultation until after the Election Period, if practicable.

6.7 Events

The scheduling of Council events in the lead-up to elections frequently raises concerns over the potential use by sitting Councillors for electioneering purposes. Events and functions can take many and various forms, including conferences, workshops, forums, launches/openings, promotional activities, and social occasions (such as dinners, receptions and balls). Any scheduling of Council events during the Election Period will be reviewed by the Chief Executive Officer who may determine that an individual activity or event is:

- a) not permitted to proceed; or
- b) permitted to proceed but subject to any restrictions which the Chief Executive Officer may impose (e.g. restricting Councillors from making speeches).

6.8 Equitable Access to Council Information

- a) This policy must include procedures to ensure that access to information held by Council is made equally available and accessible to all candidates during the Election Period.
- b) Council recognises that all candidates have the right to access information held by Council, subject to the Privacy and Data Protection Act 2014.
- c) Neither Councillors nor candidates will receive information or advice from Officers that might be perceived to support election campaigns, and there shall be complete transparency in the provision of all information and advice during the Election Period.
- d) Councillors will continue to receive information that is necessary to fulfil their elected roles, particularly in regard to information relating to Council Agenda and Briefing items currently under consideration.

6.9 Provisions of Council Information to Councillors and Candidates

- a) Information and briefing material prepared by Officers for Councillors during the Election Period will relate only to factual matters or existing Council services. Such information will not relate to policy development, new projects or matters that are the subject of public or election debate or that might be perceived to be connected with a candidate's election campaign.
- b) When a Councillor wishes to request information for their use as a Councillor (e.g. a briefing from Officers, access to information on Council files), the Councillor must make the request through the Chief Executive Officer. This allows the relevance of the information requested to be determined in relation to current Council business.
- c) Officers will not directly provide Councillors or candidates with information but will refer any direct requests for information to the Chief Executive Officer during the Election Period.

- d) An Information Request Register will be maintained during the Election Period. This Register will be a public document that records all requests relating to electoral matters and non-routine requests for information by Councillors and candidates, and the responses given to those requests.

6.10 Officer Activities During an Election Period

- a) Officers should not undertake any activity that may influence the outcome of an election, except where the activity relates to the election process and is authorised by the Chief Executive Officer.
- b) Officers should not authorise or allocate a Council resource for any purpose which may influence voting in the election, except where it relates to the election process and is authorised by the Chief Executive Officer. This includes making Council resources available to Councillors for campaign purposes.
- c) Officers must not assist any Councillor with their election campaign at any time, including outside work hours.
- d) Where the use of Council resources could be construed as being related to a candidate's election campaign, the incident must be reported to the Chief Executive Officer.

6.11 Responsibilities

The Chief Executive Officer is responsible for overseeing adherence to this Election Period Policy. Councillors and Officers are responsible for reporting any breach or suspected breach of this policy to the Chief Executive Officer.

6.12 Access of Policy

A copy of the Governance Rules which include this Election Period Policy will:

- a) be given to each Councillor as soon as practicable after its adoption; and
- b) made available for inspection by the public at Council's offices and via Council's website.
