

Initial Personal Interest Return

Local Government Act 2020 (Section 133)

Councillors need to provide an initial Personal Interests Return within 30 days of taking the oath or affirmation.

Nominated officers, the CEO will determine which staff are required to submit an initial Personal Interests Return. This will be based on whether the staff member has a statutory or delegated power, duty or function and the CEO considers it necessary that because of that power, duty or function they must submit a Personal Interests Return. Council staff have 30 days to submit an initial Personal Interests Return from when they are advised by the CEO that their position requires to submit a Personal Interests Return.

If Delegated committee appointment preceded 24 October 2020 then an initial Personal Interests Return should be submitted within 30 days from the date the new requirements became effective i.e. within 30 days from 24 October 2020.

Name of Corporation	Office held by you	Description of the purpose or activities of the corporation

2. Unincorporated associations in which you are a member and perform a leadership role

In this section you must disclose the details of any membership you hold of unincorporated associations where you perform a leadership role. For example, you do not need to list your membership of the local football club if you do not have a leadership role in that club. However, for example, if you hold a position such as President, Secretary or Treasurer then you will need to disclose this here.

If required, insert additional rows to the table for each membership.

7. Land you own or have a beneficial interest in

In this section you must provide the details of any land located within the municipal district of the council or an adjoining municipal district which you own or hold a beneficial interest in other than by way of security for any debt. For example, you would need to disclose where you are a beneficiary of a trust that may own land.

You should clearly mark a property that is used as a place of residence (either for yourself or for others) as it is a requirement that this information NOT be included at the full address level in the summary.

If required, insert additional rows to the table for each separate land interest.

9. Companies which you solely or jointly with family members hold a controlling interest

In this section you must provide details of any companies you solely or jointly with family members have a controlling interest in. For a full list of what might constitute a controlling interest you should refer to section 72 of the Payroll Tax Act 2007. This includes more common controlling interests such as for example 72 (2) (d) in the case of a business carried on by a body corporate or unincorporate—that person or set of persons constitute more than 50% of the board of management (by whatever name called) of the body or control the composition of that board.

If required, insert additional rows in the table for each company you have an interest in.

10. Personal Debt

In this section you must provide details of any personal debt exceeding $10,000 that you owed at the time you prepared this return. You do not declare the value of your debts just the name of the creditor that you have a debt to. The regulations provide exclusions under the definition of debt. This specifically excludes debt owed to a person whose ordinary business includes the lending of money (eg. Banks, financial institutions).

If required, insert additional rows to the table.
